

ASSOCIATION OF OFFICIAL SEED ANALYSTS

OFFICIAL LABORATORY MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Applications for "Official Laboratory" membership in AOSA must be received by the Membership Committee on or before April 30th of the year application is made prior to the annual meeting of the Association. Please review the procedure and submit the necessary information to: Laura Donaldson, Chairperson, AOSA Membership Committee, Indiana State Seed Laboratory, 175 S. University St., Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907.

OFFICIAL LABORATORY DEFINITION:

"Seed laboratories of government regulatory agencies and/or government institutions as defined in Article IV Section 2, engaged in seed testing and/or seed research shall be eligible for Official Laboratory status. Each Official Laboratory shall be entitled to one vote in the election of officers and other business of the Association. The vote of an Official Laboratory shall be cast by one of its affiliate members."

The following laboratory makes application for "Official Laboratory" membership in the Association of Official Seed Analysts, Inc.:

Laboratory Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Fax: _____

Description of Laboratory Activities & Responsibilities (attach additional sheets if needed):

Laboratory Supervisor/ Manager: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____